AMC1 BFCL.420(d) FE(B) certificate - Prerequisites and requirements

ED Decision 2020/003/R

Evaluation of the relevant background of an applicant

When evaluating the applicant's background, the competent authority should evaluate the personality and character of the applicant, and their cooperation with the competent authority. The competent authority may also take into account whether the applicant has been convicted of any relevant criminal or other offences, taking into account national law and principles of non-discrimination.
